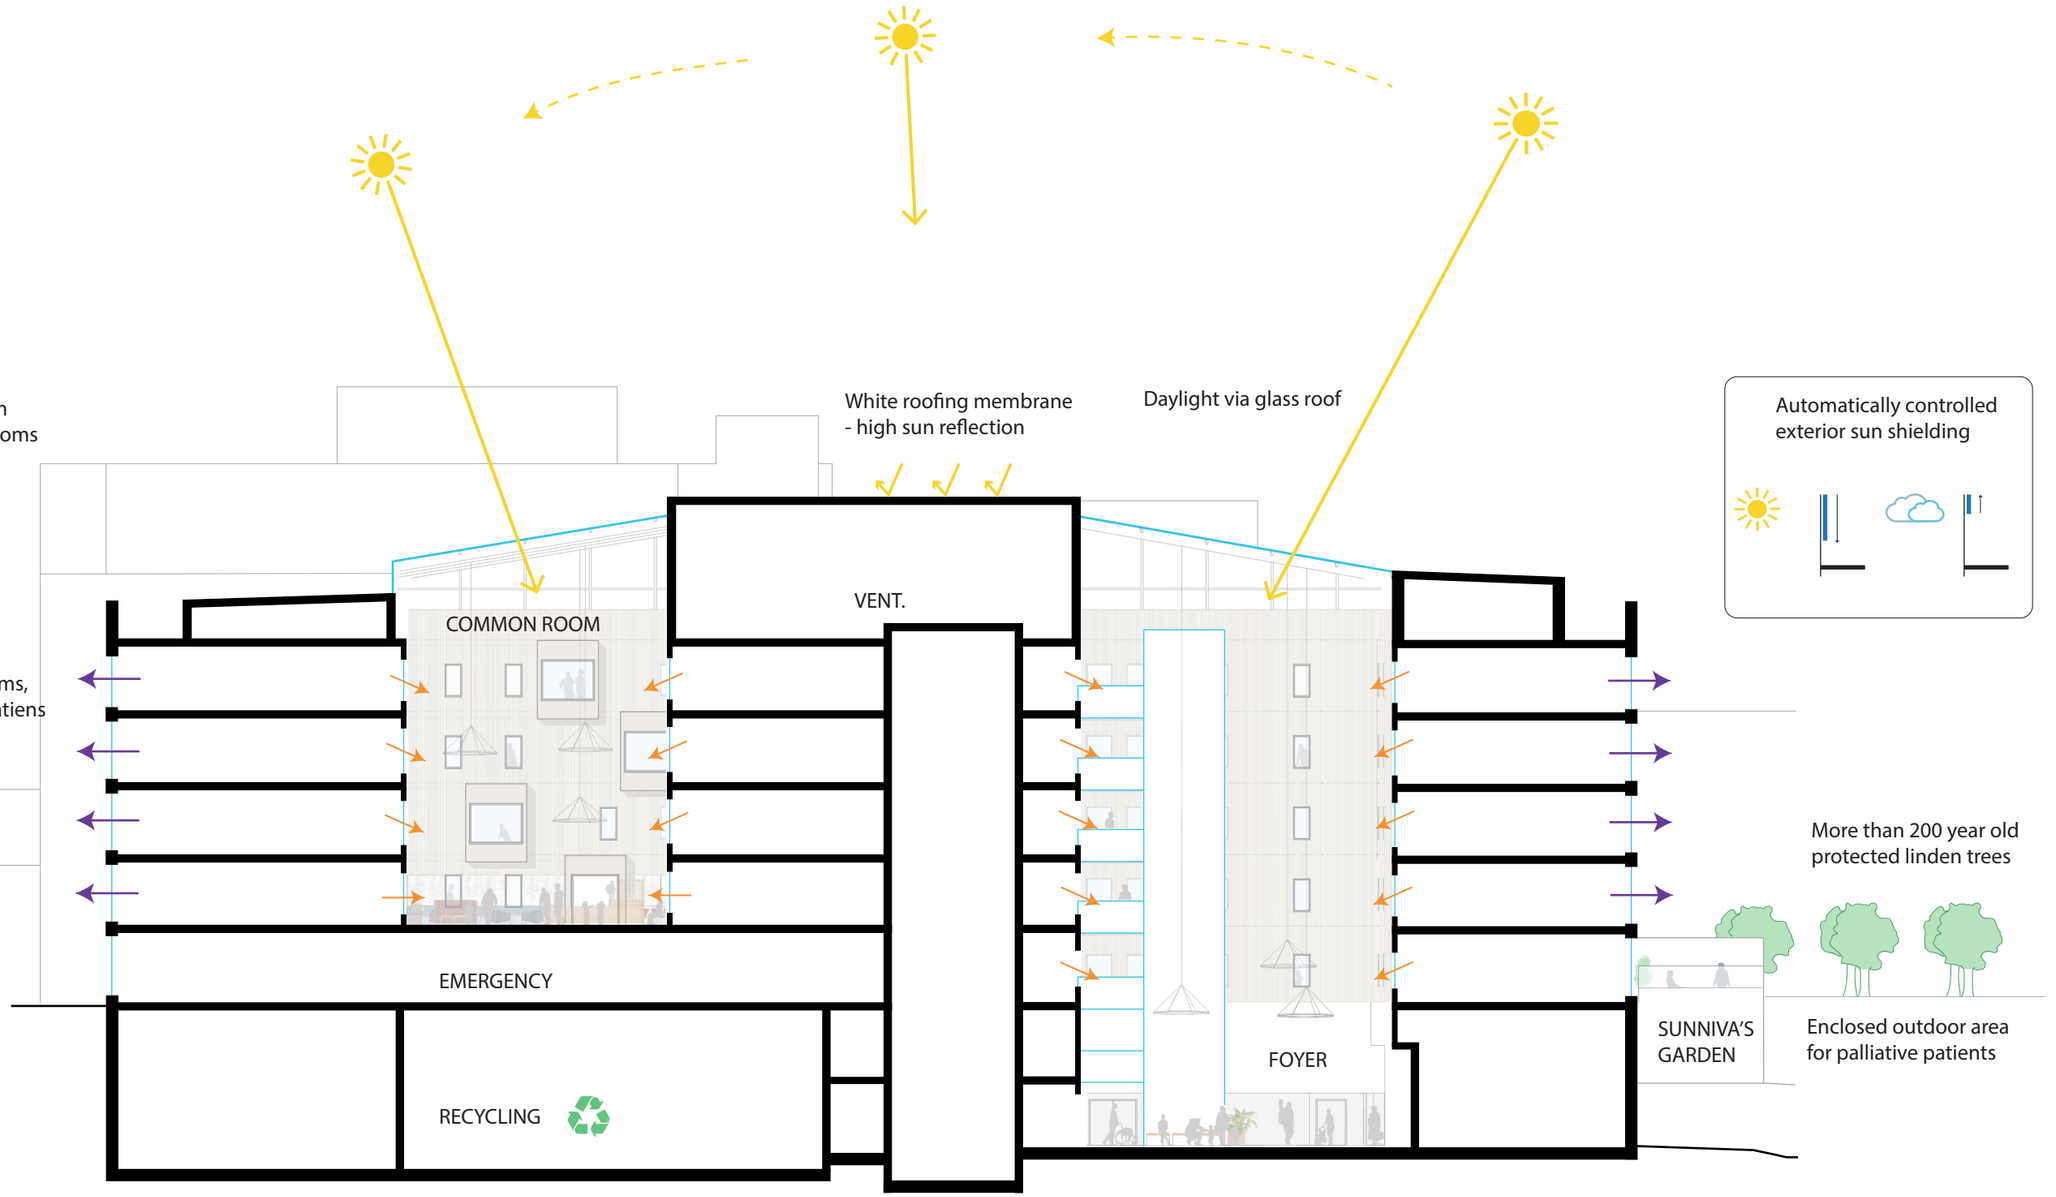
View to public areas from workrooms and living rooms

View from all the bedrooms, also for the bedridden patiens

White roofing membrane - high sun reflection

Daylight via glass roof

Automatically controlled exterior sun shielding



More than 200 year old protected linden trees

Enclosed outdoor area for palliative patients

Waterbourne district heating

Facilitating easy access for walking, cycling and use of public transportation

Maintenance-free facades, with recycable natural materials
- self-cleaning glass in windows
- fire impregnated oak
- fiber concrete

Highly insulated facades and roof. Fulfills the passive house standard requirements