

Creative Denmark Tours

Creative Denmark Tours is a free-of-charge service for international decision-makers and professionals wishing to learn about Danish creative solutions. We welcome you to our visitor centre, House of Creative Denmark, in Copenhagen, an inspiring and thoroughly designed space to host presentations, matchmaking events, workshops, and more, and we arrange on-site visits with Danish companies and organisations within the creative industries.

Creative Denmark offers

- A tailored experience within the Danish creative industries. Through Creative Denmark Tours you can experience first-hand why Denmark is a global creative frontrunner. Engage with state-of-the-art solutions, and discover the expertise, innovation, and technologies that drive architecture, interior design, communication design, fashion, industrial and strategic design, video games & XR, music & sound, film, TV & animation.
- Facilitated matchmaking with the most relevant Danish potential partners and providers. Get inspiration for future projects, and qualify partnerships, products, and processes with easy access to world-renowned Danish experts and innovators.
- A personalised and inspirational introduction to the potential of creativity in your exact field of interest along with how creativity plays a role in solving major global challenges.

Creative Denmark accommodates

- Top-level management, design management, and commercial management from public and private organisations looking for partners, products, or processes within one or more of the aforementioned industries.
- Investors, venture capitalists, and procurers.
- Politicians and official representatives from all levels of the public sector.
- Media covering sustainability, innovation, business, politics, economics, or creative industries.
