TWEET:

TWEET is a new soft seating collection consisting of puff, daybed, chair and sofa. The series also contains different covers and TWEET can therefore be combined in many ways.

The furniture can stand individually or paired using TWEET Wall, which is an upholstered wall. With this wall, many combinations can be created according to your wishes and needs. Chairs and couches come with either low or high cover.

- Many variants of TWEET
- Available in several designs and colors with many combination options
- Accessories include different tables and neck pillows
